My Dear Friend Garrison

In conformity with my own feelings and in behalf of our lovely family, and those friends present at the meeting on Tuesday last, I wish to make grateful acknowledgments to you for the fitting words uttered, and the kindly feeling with which they were uttered on that occasion. Certainly no psalm could be sung, no eulogy be pronounced more beautiful and truthful, than, that through his life's career, Father "hewed to the line of justice", and "was no worshiper of men".

It is the earnest desire of the family as well as the expressed wish of many others who listened to the remarks on that occasion, that you commit to paper as near as possible the substance of your discourse. We shall deem it a most fitting memorial of the occasion - a tribute worthily bestowed. If you can recall the thread, and will comply with the request we shall be very glad, and will ever remain your

Sincere Friends.

for the family;

Chas. P. Adams

(Son of William Adams.)

Let us see you here as often as convenient. We were sorry to learn that you mistook the train on leaving here Tuesday last. Hope you reached home the same night safely. Mother & Sister join me in kind regards for your wife. Trust she is regaining her health & strength.
